

Direct link to Indian Museum facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/photo.php?fbid=10207664015214578&set=gm.1008077385897232&type=3>

Indian Museum, Kolkata

in collaboration with

Zoological Survey of India &

Yuktibadi Sanskritik Sanstha

present

Workshop on Snake Bite and Superstitions

December 22, 2015 | 11 AM to 2 PM | Central Courtyard

Lectures:

Introduction: Dr. Varadaraju - Scientist C, Zoological Survey of India, Snakebites is a common Public health hazards: Dr. Nirmalendu Nath, Different Species of Snakes in West Bengal, Menace of superstitions from Snakes, Comparison between Poisonous and Non-Poisonous Snakes, Rural treatment of Patient by Snake biting, Treatment at Hospital and Role and activities of Snake Charmer at the point of danger

Exhibitions:

Specimen of venomous and non-venomous snakes along with posters by Zoological Survey of India and Living Snakes

ALL ARE INVITED

For details contact: Education Officer, Indian Museum Kolkata, 92300 01451

Follow us <http://www.facebook.com/groups/friendsofindianmuseum/>